RESOLUTIONS BY THE BAR ASSOCIATION

To the Honorable E. Elmo Bollinger, Judge of the Superior Court of Mohave County, State of Ariz.

Sir:

Your committee on Resolution with respect to the death of our Honored Brother and fellow-citizen, the Honorable William G. Blakely, beg leave to submit herewith the following Resolution:

Whereas, the Great Almighty in his Infinite Wisdom has seen fit to call from his earthly abode the Honorable William G. Blakely, of Kingman, Arizona, to the Greater Life Beyond, who passed away on the 19th day of April, 1920, after a lingering sickness caused principally by a mature age; and

Whereas, Judge Blakely was a distinguished member of the Mohave County Bar and one of the oldest residents of the County, and was known by his fellow-members of the Bar, his co-workers in public and religious life, and by all who knew him, as a man of upright character and unquestioned integrity, with clear intellect and human sympathy. He was noted for his keen sense of justice and professional honor. His clients never came to him in vain for help and assistance, but were served in all things with due regard to their best interests. He was a Christian and lived a consistent Christian life and worked with unabated zeal for the good of humanity.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Mohave County Bar Association, that the State of Arizona, and especially the community and the Bar of this County, have suffered in the death of Judge Blakely the loss of one of our most valued and highly respected citizens, whose passing we feel with deep regret;

Be It Further Resolved, that the Superior Court of Mohave County, of which Court Judge Blakely was an esteemed member, be moved to stand at recess for one day in his honor and in token of our grief and respect;

Be It Further Resolved, that this Resolution be read in open Court and spread upon the Minute Book, and that a copy be sent to the family of our Departed Brother.

A 20 INCH GILA

A gila monster, 20 inches in length, was caught last Sunday in the hills northeast of town by Kier, McMillan and Peterson, of the Express Office.

The reptile was lodged under a rock and the boys had some difficulty in pulling him out, but they were finally successful, after hitting him over the head with a rock, they brought him to town with a rope made out of yucca. His royal highness is getting along nicely and thriving on fresh eggs and rats. Inasmuch as his size is a little out of the ordinary, the boys think they may be able to sell him for a good figure.

It is said there is a standing offer of $1000 for a gila monster measuring 23 inches.

HALF MILLION ACRES TO BE THROWN OPEN

One of the largest openings of public lands in the state is scheduled for the 13th day of August, 1920. These lands lie north and west of Kingman, in Wallapai and Detrital valleys, the southernmost tier of townships being 25 and running to 31 north, both inclusive, and running from range 13 to range 22 west, both inclusive, embracing approximately 875,000 acres. One-half of this acreage is railroad land, although there may be many thousands of acres of mineral and school lands.

The order throwing these lands open to settlement and entry states that the plats will be officially filed in the land office at Phoenix on the 10th day of June; that applications for the unappropriated lands will be subject to application of soldiers of the late war within 30 days prior to that date and all such applications will be treated as simultaneous. Such discharged soldiers will enjoy a preference right of entry until August 13, 1920, on which date at 9:00 a. m. the remaining lands will become generally subject to entry, provided that applications by persons not soldiers may also be received for twenty days prior to August 13, 1920, which applications will be treated as simultaneous.

The lands embraced in this great tract are for the most part grazing lands, but with water for irrigation would be among the most valuable of the public domain of the state. Part of it is on the west side of the Wallapai Indian Reservation, but that part is not to be considered. A large part of it takes in the Gold Basin, Red Lake, Lost Basin, Indian Secret, and
